

Please do not let the Telemarketers change the law we fought so hard to get prohibiting them from using my private phone service to intrude on my privacy. It was such a relief when their calls stopped. We need the recourse the law affords us to bring the abusive telemarketers who ignore the law to the authorities to stop them. Thank you. Michael A. Pirylis